Chapter 3: Round Barrows in the Borderlands: Distribution and Morphology	26
Introduction	26
Methodology	26
Results of initial search	27
Data reliability	27
Database format.....	28
The distribution of funerary sites.....	28

Administrative and topographic distribution of round barrows	28
Types of evidence.....	31
Topographic distribution of sites.....	32
The distribution of extant and destroyed sites:	32
Archaeological biases.....	36
Barrow forms.....	38
Problems with misidentification.....	39
The variety of external barrow forms represented in the study area	39
Bowl barrows.....	39
Bell barrows	42
Pond barrows.....	42
Disc barrows.....	43
Variant circles.....	48
Ring cairns.....	48
Kerb cairns	49
Platform cairns.....	50
Distinctive constructional features (ditches and banks)	50
Ring ditches.....	53
Summary	54
Chapter 4: Investigating Round Barrow Clusters.....	57
Introduction	57
Background	57
Methodology	58
The method.....	59
The method in practice	59
Cluster A: Moel Ty-uchaf, Clwyd.....	61
Topography	61
Description of the cluster.....	63
Cluster cohesion	65

Visual relationships	65
Topographic relationships	67
The cluster and its place within the landscape	67
Cluster B: Cefn Penagored, Clwyd	69
Topography	69
Description of the cluster.....	69
Cluster cohesion	73
Visual relationships	73
Topographic relationships	73
The cluster and its place within the landscape	73
Cluster C: Corndon Hill, Powys	75
Topography	75
Description of the cluster.....	78
Cluster cohesion	79
Visual relationships	79
Topographic relationships	81
The cluster and its place within the landscape	81
The Group XII source at Hyssington.....	81
Stone circles	81
Barrows and cairns	83
Cluster D: The Long Mynd, Shropshire	84
Topography	85
Description of the cluster.....	87
Cluster cohesion	87
Visual relationships	89
Topographic relationships	93
The cluster and its place within the landscape	93
Cluster E: Banc Gorrddwr, Powys	94
Topography	94
Description of the cluster.....	94

Cluster cohesion	98
Visual relationships	98
Topographic relationships	99
The cluster and its place within the landscape	99
Cluster F: Radnor Forest, Powys	101
Topography	103
Description of the cluster.....	103
Cluster cohesion	105
Visual relationships	105
Topographic relationships	108
The cluster and its place within the landscape	108
Cluster G: Walton Basin, Powys	109
Topography	109
Description of the cluster.....	109
Cluster cohesion	112
Visual relationships	112
Topographic relationships	112
The cluster and its place within the landscape	114
Cluster H: Upper House, Powys	115
Topography	117
Description of the cluster.....	117
Cluster cohesion	119
Visual relationships	119
Topographic relationships	121
The cluster and its place within the landscape	121
Cluster I: Begwyns, Powys	122
Topography	122
Description of the cluster.....	122
Cluster cohesion	125
Visual relationships	125

Topographic relationships	125
The cluster and its place within the landscape	127
Discussion.....	128
Chapter 5: A Pair of Round Barrows	130
Introduction	130
A pair of round barrows at Trelystan, Powys.....	130
Cremated remains: burials or deposits?.....	135
