Part 1. Cultural Astronomy, Skyscape and Ontology: How Celestial Objects and Events have Featured in the Belief Systems, Cosmologies and Worldviews of Different Societies	1
Roslyn M. Frank and Lionel D. Sims
1. Do Ancient Egyptian Almanacs Show Evidence of Celestial Recurrence?	3
Rolf Krauss and Victor Reijs
1.1 Introduction	3
1.2 Pharaonic menologies and hemerologies	3
1.3 Schematic distribution of one third of all prognoses	3
1.4 Transformation of the almanac's intervals into time points	4
1.5 Explanation of the period ~2.85	5
1.6 Explanation of the split differences	5
1.7 Arithmetic conclusion	6
1.8 Different statistical techniques for periodicity analysis	6
1.9 Can Rayleigh test be used to determine periodicity in the data series?	6
1.10 Dependence on the placement of the time points over the day	6
1.11 Comparing different sources	7
1.12 Comparing different statistical techniques for periodicities	7
1.13 Fixed almanac prognoses relating to recurrent celestial events	8
1.14 Statistical conclusions	9
1.15 Overall conclusions	9
2. "Cosmic" Containers – Elements and Representatives of Ancient Cosmovisions	11
Barbara Rappenglück
2.1 Introduction	11
2.2 Notional "cosmic containers" in mythical cosmovisions	12
2.3 Containers with cosmic symbolism	12
2.3.1 Shape	12
2.3.2 Material	13
2.3.3 Manufacturing	13
2.3.4 Décor	14
2.3.5 Context of use	15
2.4 Conclusion	15
3. Solstice Azimuths as Design Elements at Angkor Wat and Nearby Temples	19
William F. Romain
3.1 Introduction	19
3.2 Methods	19
3.3 Results	21
3.3.1 Angkor Wat	21
3.3.2 Other Nearby Sites	21
3.4 Discussion	21
3.5 Concluding remarks	25
4. Returning from the Underworld: The West Kennet Palisades in the Avebury Monument Complex	27
Lionel D. Sims
4.1 Introduction	27
4.2 Framing the West Kennet Palisades	28
4.3 The archaeology of the West Kennet Palisades	30
4.4 The skyscape archaeology of Enclosure 2 of the West Kennet Palisades	31
4.5 Conclusion	33

Part 2. Frontiers in Theory, Methodology and Education within Cultural Astronomy.....	35
Michael A. Rappenglück and Georg Zotti
5. Beyond Paradigms: Archaeoastronomy as a New Interpretation Key to Understand the Function and Meaning of Ancient Roman Buildings.....	37
Marina De Franceschini
5.1 Foreword.....	37
5.2 Hadrian’s Villa in Tivoli (Rome).....	37
5.3 The Pantheon.....	38
5.3.1 Previous studies.....	38
5.3.2 The hierophanies of the Pantheon.....	38
5.3.3 Our discovery: the hierophanies of the Arc of Light and the Square of Light.....	39
5.3.4 The symbolic meaning of the Arc of Light.....	41
5.4 Conclusions on the Pantheon.....	42
6. Astronomical Data and Their Usefulness for Dating Ancient Societies.....	45
Rita Gautschy
6.1 Introduction.....	45
6.2 Ancient Egyptian Calendars.....	45
6.3 Ancient Mesopotamian Calendars.....	46
6.4 General problems.....	46
6.5 Egypt in the first half of the second millennium BCE.....	47
6.6 Mesopotamia in the first half of the second millennium BCE.....	48
6.7 Conclusions.....	49
7. Teaching Cultural Astronomy to Undergraduates with an Interdisciplinary Frame.....	51
Jarita C. Holbrook
7.1 Introduction.....	51
7.2 What to teach?.....	51
7.3 Astronomy, Maps, and Mapping.....	52
7.4 Data Collection Methods and Case Studies.....	52
7.5 Student Responses.....	53
7.6 Conclusions.....	53
8. The Chiemgau Impact: Evidence of a Latest Bronze Age/Early Iron Age Meteorite Impact in the Archaeological Record, and Resulting Critical Considerations of Catastrophism.....	57
Barbara Rappenglück, Michael Hiltl and Kord Ernstson
8.1 Introduction: Did meteorite impacts shape human cultures?.....	57
8.2 Holocene meteorite impacts and presumed cultural implications: some caveats.....	58
8.3 New aspects from the Holocene Chiemgau meteorite impact.....	58
8.3.1 The Holocene Chiemgau Impact.....	58
8.3.2 The verification of a meteorite impact in an archaeological context by artefacts constituting part of an impact rock – the first evidence worldwide.....	59
8.3.3 The dating of the Holocene Chiemgau meteorite impact.....	61
8.4 The question of a cultural catastrophe scenario.....	61
8.4.1 Consequences on the supra-regional level?.....	61
8.4.2 Consequences on a local scale?.....	61
8.5 Conclusion.....	62
9. How Do We Know What They Were Thinking? Archaeoastronomy between Science and Speculation – Palaeolithic Case Studies.....	65
Michael A. Rappenglück
9.1 Introduction.....	65
9.2 From Astro-Archaeology to Cultural Astronomy.....	65
9.3 How can the range of topics and the methodology of Cultural Astronomy be determined?.....	66
9.4 The Integral Methodology as a scientific approach – Case studies from the Palaeolithic.....	66
9.5 Some points of an Integral Methodology	66
9.6 Conclusion.....	69

10. Archaeoastronomical Sites as Fields of Relationship.....	73
Stanisław Iwaniszewski
10.1 Introduction.....	73
10.2 Relational Ontologies.....	74
10.3 Ingold's relational fields.....	75
10.4 Towards a relational ontological approach in archaeoastronomy.....	76
10.5 Alignments.....	76
10.6 Archaeoastronomical sites as relational fields.....	76
10.7 Conclusions.....	78
11. Some Thoughts on the Skycultures in Stellarium.....	81
Georg Zotti and Alexander Wolf
11.1 Introduction.....	81
11.2 The “skyculture” concept in Stellarium.....	81
11.3 Non-Western constellation concepts.....	83
11.4 Lost in Translation?.....	84
11.5 Classification.....	84
11.6 Future work.....	85
12. Virtual Archaeoastronomy with Stellarium: An Overview.....	87
Georg Zotti
12.1 Introduction.....	87
12.2 A Software Gap.....	87
12.2.1 Archaeology.....	87
12.2.2 Astronomy.....	88
12.3 Bridging the Gap.....	89
12.3.1 The Landscape Horizon.....	89
12.3.2 Four-dimensional Virtual Archaeoastronomy.....	89
12.4 Limitations.....	90
12.5 Discussion and Future Work.....	91
Part 3. The Archaeology of Astronomy: Concepts of Space and Time Materialised in Cultures.....	93
Ivan Šprajc, and Juan A. Belmonte
13. Pisces, a Zodiac Sign Engraved on a Nabataean Tomb Façade in Hegra.....	95
Munirah Almushawh
13.1 Introduction.....	95
13.2 Concepts of Space and Time Materialized in the Nabataean Civilization.....	96
13.2.1 Nabataean artifacts featuring astronomical elements and time tracking tools.....	97
13.3 Results and Analysis.....	98
13.4 Discussion.....	99
14. Orientation Analysis of the Monumental Architectural Remains at Phrygian Site Kerkenes, Turkey.....	101
A. Iraz Alpay
14.1 Introduction.....	101
14.2 Kerkenes.....	102
14.3 Archaeoastronomical Analysis and Results.....	103
14.4 Discussion.....	106
14.5 Conclusion.....	108
15. Cultural Astronomy: Material Culture, Astronomy, Astrology and Power.....	111
Nicholas Campion
15.1 Pilgrimage and Ritual.....	112
15.2 The Built Environment.....	112
15.3 Discussion.....	113

16. In the Light of the Milky Way: An Interpretative Key for Crux-Centaurus Alignments Across Prehistoric Europe	115
Ilaria Cristofaro
16.1 Introduction	115
16.2 Literature review: Orientations to the Crux-Centaurus.....	116
16.3 Investigation and Analysis	118
16.3.1 Testing visibility	118
16.3.2 The turning of the Milky Way	118
16.3.3 The laying of the Milky Way on the landscape	120
16.4 Discussion	121
16.5 Conclusion.....	122
17. Etruscan Temples and the Sun: An Analysis on the Orientation of Etruscan Sacred Buildings.....	125
Antonio Paolo Pernigotti
17.1 Introduction	125
17.2 A critical analysis of the sample and a comparison with ancient Greek temples.....	128
17.3 Concluding remarks	128
18. Harmony of Light and Geometry in Medieval Cistercian Churches in Italy and Switzerland from the 12th-13th Centuries	133
Eva Spinazzè
18.1 Methodology	133
18.2 Religion, liturgy and ritual	134
18.3 Orientation and light incidence	135
18.4 Geometry and proportion	138
18.5 Conclusion.....	142
19. The Relevance of Archaeoastronomy to Understanding Urban Planning and Landscape Formation in Mesoamerica.....	145
Ivan Šprajc
19.1 Introduction	145
19.2 Orientations in Mesoamerican Architecture.....	145
19.3 Astronomical Alignments and Urban Planning	146
19.3.1 Teotihuacan.....	146
19.3.2 Templo Mayor of Tenochtitlan	147
19.3.3 La Campana.....	148
19.3.4 Cantona.....	148
19.3.5 Eastern Campeche, Mexico	148
19.3.6 Survivals	148
19.4 Conclusion.....	149
20. Bronze Age Rock Art and 20th-Century Oil-On-Canvas Impressions of Constellation Crux, the Southern Cross.....	153
Christiaan Sterken
20.1 Configurations identified as Crux.....	153
20.1.1 Crux in Mont Bego rock art.....	153
20.1.2 The form of the Crux asterism.....	154
20.1.3 Crux petroglyphs in the Valle Hermoso.....	154
20.1.4 Crux petroglyphs in the Agua Botada region	154
20.1.5 Crux engravings on the Hornsby Plateau	154
20.2 Twentieth-century artist views of Crux.....	155
20.2.1 The 1971 artwork	155
20.2.2 The 1972 painting.....	155
20.3 Stellar magnitudes.....	155
20.3.1 Stellar magnitudes for Agua Botada/Valle Hermoso.....	155
20.3.2 Stellar magnitudes for La Silla.....	155
20.4 Inconsistencies in the artworks	157
20.4.1 The 1971 artwork	157
20.4.2 The 1972 painting.....	157

20.5 Discussion 158

20.6 Summary 158

20.7 A propos of the artist’s gaze 158

21. The Prehistoric Taula Sanctuaries and the Contemporary Barraques of Minorca: A Comparative Analysis within the Framework of Cultural Astronomy 161

Maitane Urrutia-Aparicio and Juan A. Belmonte

21.1 Introduction 161

21.2 Principal monuments..... 161

 21.2.1 Dolmens 161

 21.2.2 Burial Navetas 161

 21.2.3 Taula Sancturaries 162

21.3 An experiment of verification: Taula sanctuaries vs. Barraques 163

21.4 Comparative analysis 166

21.5 Conclusions 166
