

Contents

Part I

1. Introduction..... 3
Editors
2. Joost H. Crouwel as a Teacher.....11
Tess Doorewaard
3. In Search of the Origins of the Chariot: Wrong Turns, Dead Ends, and Long and Winding Roads..... 15
Stefan Burmeister and Peter Raulwing
4. Research on Chariots in Slavic Studies: A Brief Overview..... 47
Elena Izbitser

Part II

Egypt, Near East, the Balkans, the Steppes, China in the 2nd millenium BCE and later developments

5. Leather: An Integral Part of Chariots ..... 61
André J. Veldmeijer and Salima Ikram
6. ‘They Shall Henceforth Be Fed in my Presence’: Observations on the Training and Treatment of Chariot Horses in Ancient Egypt ..... 67
Miriam A. Bibby
7. The Egyptian ‘Check Rowel’ – A New Interpretation of its Purpose..... 83
Gail Brownrigg
8. Another Storm God ‘Jumping’ on his Vehicle? Remarks on the Sketch on KUB 20.76 ..... 89
Theo van den Hout
9. Bone Cheekpieces and Spoked Wheels – Chariots in the Carpathian Region..... 103
Nikolaus G. O. Boroffka
10. Archaeological Evidence for the Horse-Drawn Chariot from Inner Eurasia..... 125
Igor V. Chechushkov and Andrey V. Epimakhov
11. Early Cheekpieces in Eurasia ..... 151
Vadim S. Bochkarev and Pavel F. Kuznetsov
12. Chariots on the Central Asian Rocks: The Dating Problem..... 179
Viktor Novozhenov
13. When Chariots Were First Known in China: Early Cheekpiece Development in the Late Shang Dynasty Around 1250 BCE ..... 199
Hsiao-yun Wu
14. Early Chinese Chariots, Carriages, and Carts in War and Peace: Evidence from New Textual and Archaeological Sources..... 215
Robin D. S. Yates
15. Majjiayuan Chariots and the Lustre of Eurasia ..... 231
Xiaolong Wu and Katheryn M. Linduff

Part III
Chariot Findings, Chariots in Action, Their Construction,
and Experimental Archaeology

16. The Ancient V-spoked Chariot Wheel: Why was It Made that Way? Some Thoughts Based on Some Observations and the Experience of Making Chariot Reconstructions .....	245
Robert Hurford
17. Jean Spruytte – Horseman, Scholar, Chariot Builder .....	255
Gail Brownrigg
18. Some Observations on Chariotry and Chariot Warfare in the Near Eastern Late Bronze Age and the Battle of Kadesh .....	273
Steven Weingartner
Index.....	313