

Contents

List of Figures	xiii
List of Tables	xv
Abstract	xvi
Introduction	1
1. Pipeclay Studies: The Story So Far	7
Continental Pipeclay Studies	7
British Pipeclay Studies	10
2. Material Culture and Identity	15
Identity as a Concept	15
Identity and Material Culture Studies.....	16
Identity and Social Practice	17
Identity and Contextual Approaches to Material Culture Studies	20
3. Methodology	23
Published and Unpublished Material.....	23
Contextual Analysis	25
The Bigger Picture.....	28
4. Making Pipeclay Objects	29
Where Were They Made?	29
Pipeclay Production in Britain?.....	31
Pipeclay Manufacturing Techniques.....	31
Identifying Production Centres.....	33
Visual Fabric Analysis	36
Discussion.....	39
Inscriptions and Stamps on Figurines.....	43
Gaulish Producers	44
Rhine-Moselle Producers.....	45
Other Stamps and Inscriptions	46
Discussion.....	46
5. Consuming the Gods in Roman Britain	51
Identification Conventions and Problems.....	51
Typology and Quantitative Analysis	52
Deities	52
Animals.....	55
Humans	56
Animal Vessels, Shrines and Masks.....	56
Discussion.....	58
Consuming the Gods in the Roman Provinces	62
Consuming Pipeclay Objects Between Regions.....	63
Material Matters: Comparing Pipeclay and Metal Figurines in Britain	73
Look-a-Likes? The Significance of Materials.....	80
6. Contextual Dating	85
7. Spatial and Social Distribution	107
Overall Spatial Distribution	107
Overall Social Distribution	109
Military Sites.....	112

Urban Sites.....	114
Rural Sites.....	117
London.....	119
The Distribution of Selected Forms and Types	122
Figurines and Busts, Shrines, Animal Vessels and Masks	123
Figurine Types and their Wider Context.....	131
Animals.....	140
Humans.....	142
The Distributions of Common and Rare Types	144
The Distributions of Rare Gaulish and Rhine-Moselle Types	146
The Distributions of Male and Female Types.....	149
8. Status Symbols? Comparing Ceramic and Metal Figurines in Britain.....	155
Comparing Pipeclay and Metal Figurine Types	158
9. The Ritual Use of Pipeclay Objects	167
Hoarded Pipeclay Objects?.....	168
Temples and Sanctuaries.....	169
Typological and Spatial Distribution	169
Chronology	170
Contextual Analysis	170
The Meaning of Pipeclay Objects at Temples	174
Metal and Pipeclay Figurine Use at Temples.....	175
Burials.....	175
Spatial and Typological Distribution	178
Graveside Rituals (Burning).....	182
Chronology	183
Meaning and Context.....	186
Identity and Social Status.....	187
Comparison with Metal Figurine Burial Practices.....	191
Conclusion	193
Appendix 1: Catalogue of Pipeclay Objects from Britain.....	197
Typological Catalogue of the Pipeclay Objects in Roman Britain	197
Appendix 2: Pipeclay Database (online only) – https://doi.org/10.30861/9781407362281-Appendix2
Bibliography	263
Index.....	291